HU 210
MLA 8 Citations Exercises
Mitchell College Library

Directions: In groups of 2-3 students complete the following activities:

1. Using the HU210 course guide on the Mitchell College Library site, go to one of the Artist (Author, Composer, Artist) pages and use the library catalog to look for a book on an artist from the Romanticism period. Record the information that you would need to add this source to a reference page (bibliographic information).

2. Go to the Research Resources page and using the database Literary Reference Center, look for a journal article on a biography of Stéphane Mallarmé. Record the bibliographic information for the article.

3. Using the PowerPoint Resources Page, go to Metropolitan Museum of Art link and find a digital image of a Degas painting. Record the bibliographic information for the article.

4. Using the Youtube video site, find a piano concerto by Fanny Mendelschon. Record the bibliographic information.

5. Create an MLA 8 Works Cited page for the sources you have found. You may use one of the citation tools available in the databases or on the MLA Format page of your guide, but be sure to check that the citation format is correct and provide all of the necessary bibliographic information. When you have complete the Works Cited page email it to me at ewing_r@Mitchell.edu.
